LOCAL UM STUDENT EARNS ADVOCATE HONORS

MISSOULA --

University of Montana student Teresa Campana of Butte was selected UM Advocate of the Term for winter quarter 1989. Of the 75-member student organization, Campana ranked first in participation and currently serves as a Communication Committee Chairperson.

Campana, a sophomore majoring in interpersonal communication, received a plaque from New Student Services Director Frank Matule at the Advocate Retreat April 1. The plaque is displayed in the Alumni Center.

The daughter of Ray and Geri Campana, she is a 1987 graduate of Butte High School.

UM Advocates help the university with UM Days, orientations, phonathons, recruiting and registration. The group also serves as campus hosts for homecoming, alumni reunions and UM Foundation events.
